VI. ELA BOOK (ADQUIRIR EN AMAZON)

2ND QUARTER

Out of My Mind by Sharon Draper

6th grader Melody is wheelchair-bound and unable to speak due to her cerebral palsy. But she has a secret – she's the smartest kid in the school – by a mile – if only she could find a way to let the world know. When she does, her world changes completely. Moving and life-affirming, this book is ideal to use to discuss disability and inclusion.

3RD QUARTER

Ghost by Jason Reynolds

Castle Crenshaw is always running away from his problems – whether it's from his difficult home life, bullies, or danger. That's until he meets Coach, an ex-track star who inspires him to use his talents in new and positive ways. It's an uplifting and transformational story that's ideal for grade 6 children.

4TH QUARTER

Awkward by Svetlana Chmakova

Penelope Peppi Torres is convinced she will only survive middle school by following the unwritten rules of social acceptance. But when she breaks them almost immediately she finds herself branded a nerd. Slowly, she realises rules are there to be broken and she learns to be herself. Funny, yet true to life, this graphic novel will appeal to reluctant readers.
